EL PASO -- A suspected gang member accused of trying to stab a teenager during an armed robbery in Westway is the target of this week's Manhunt Monday by the El Paso County Sheriff's Office.

Michael Barron, 24, who goes by the nickname of "Lonely," is sought on an aggravated robbery charge, sheriff's officials said.

On the night of Jan. 11, Barron allegedly robbed an MP3 player from a 16-year-old boy, officials said. Barron allegedly assaulted the teen and used a knife to threaten him. "Do you want me to stab you?" Barron supposedly said. Barron lunged at the teen, who escaped with minor injuries, officials said.

Barron is 5 feet 4 inches tall, 145 pounds. Anyone with information on Barron may call Crime Stoppers of El Paso at 566-8477.
